

Michigan Youth Ensembles 2015-16 Applications Due in Two Weeks!

Dear Students and Parents,

Applications for the 2015-16 Michigan Youth Ensembles season are due in two weeks, on April 1, 2015.

Apply Today!

The Michigan Youth Ensembles (MYE) program brings together select high school students from local music programs for weekly rehearsals at the U-M School of Music, Theatre & Dance. Students chosen by audition have the opportunity to rehearse and perform challenging repertoire in a stimulating environment, while learning from U-M conductors, applied faculty, and graduate students. Designed as an enrichment opportunity for local music education programs, MYE allows students to work in a collegiate setting and minimizes barriers between high school and college music study.

MYE consists of five large ensembles: Chamber Singers, Jazz Improvisation, Symphonic Band, Symphony Orchestra, and Women's Chorale, all of which are conducted by renowned U-M faculty. We also offer Musicianship Courses and chamber music opportunities, such as the Euphonium and Tuba Ensemble \(YETE\) and iMPact! Percussion Ensemble. These courses are led by graduate students under the direction of a U-M faculty advisor.

If you have questions about any of the ensembles, or about the program in general, please feel free to contact me.

I look forward to receiving your applications!

All the best,

Sigal Hemy
